Part 2: The Drawing Exercise

Draw a Three Overlapping Circles	Connect the Dots
 A hand-drawn sketch of three overlapping circles. The circles are arranged in a triangular pattern, with each circle overlapping the other two. The lines are simple and slightly irregular, suggesting a child's drawing.	 A hand-drawn sketch of a connect-the-dots exercise. It consists of eight horizontal lines, each starting and ending with a dot. The lines are connected in a complex, crisscrossing pattern, forming a series of loops and zig-zags.
Draw a Person in the Rain	Draw a House and a Tree
 A hand-drawn sketch of a person standing in the rain. The person is represented by a simple circle for the head and a vertical line for the body. Numerous short, vertical lines are drawn around the person, representing falling rain.	 A hand-drawn sketch of a house and a tree. The tree is a large, stylized tree with many long, thin branches and a thick trunk. The house is a small, simple structure with a triangular roof and a chimney. The drawing is done in a simple, childlike style.
