Part 2: The Drawing Exercise

Draw a Three Overlapping Circles	Connect the Dots
 A hand-drawn sketch of three overlapping circles. The circles are arranged in a triangular pattern, with each circle overlapping the other two. The lines are simple and slightly irregular, suggesting a child's drawing.	 A hand-drawn sketch of a dot-to-dot puzzle. It consists of two vertical columns of dots. Lines connect the dots in a complex, interlocking pattern, forming a series of loops and curves. The drawing is completed, showing the final shape of the puzzle.
Draw a Person in the Rain	Draw a House and a Tree
 A hand-drawn sketch of a person in the rain. The person is standing in the foreground, holding an umbrella. In the background, there is a building with many windows, some of which are also raining. The drawing is simple and expressive, with lines representing rain falling around the person and building.	 A hand-drawn sketch of a house and a tree. The house is on the left, with a chimney and a window. The tree is on the right, with a large, leafy canopy. The drawing is simple and expressive, with lines representing the structure of the house and the branches of the tree.
